Why Choose Us?

We believe that children are capable and born ready to learn. We empower children to think, question, investigate, explore and navigate the world around them.

- Beautiful environments designed to connect to nature and home inspired by the schools of Reggio Emilia
- 1:7 or less child-teacher ratio
- A Wyoming preschool for over 60 years
- Meeting and exceeding the expectations of our families and their children is the most important indicator of "success" for us.
- Reader/Writer Workshop format for literacy development
